Dear Students, Faculty, and Readers,

Warm greetings!

It gives me immense pleasure to present this edition of our college newsletter, which showcases the vibrant academic and co-curricular spirit of our institution. At our pharmacy college, we believe in nurturing not only knowledge and skills but also curiosity, compassion, and a deep sense of responsibility in our students.

The field of pharmacy is evolving rapidly with innovations in drug delivery, research methodologies, and patient-centered care. As future healthcare professionals, it is our collective duty to remain committed to lifelong learning, ethical practice, and excellence. I am proud to witness our students actively engaging in research, community service, and skill-building activities, all of which contribute to their holistic development.

This newsletter reflects the achievements, creativity, and collaborative efforts of our students and faculty. I commend everyone involved in its creation and hope it inspires all readers to continue striving for growth and innovation.

Let us keep moving forward with passion, purpose, and perseverance.

Warm regards,

.....Dr. Rajendra Nivrutti Patil

From the desk of Vice-Principal

Dear Students, Faculty, and Well-Wishers,

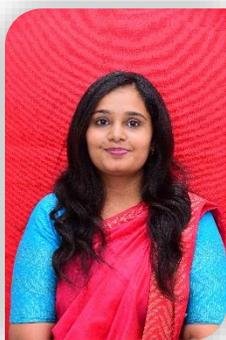

As we turn the pages of yet another vibrant edition of our college newsletter, I'm filled with pride at how far we've come as a community of passionate learners and educators. Each update, success story, and event showcased here reflects the spirit of innovation, collaboration, and dedication that defines our institution.

In today's fast-evolving world of pharmacy and healthcare, our mission extends beyond the classroom. We are shaping responsible professionals equipped with knowledge, empathy, and the drive to make a difference. This journey is not just about achieving milestones but also about growing together, with curiosity, resilience, and purpose.

I invite you to explore this newsletter not just as a record of activities, but as a reflection of our collective energy and commitment. May it inspire you to stay curious, get involved, and keep pushing boundaries.

.....Dr. Dhananjay S. Ghodke

From the desk of Editor

Dear Readers,

A newsletter is often seen as a collection of updates, but here, we believe it's more than that. It is a reflection of our aspirations, a record of our progress, and a quiet celebration of everyday excellence.

This edition brings together the voices, visions, and victories that define our college community. From thought-provoking academic endeavors to vibrant student activities, each piece has been chosen not just to inform, but to inspire. In a time when information is everywhere, what we truly need is meaning. And so, with every article and photograph, we hope to give you not just news, but a narrative.

Thank you to all the contributors who helped shape this issue. Your passion is what turns pages into purpose.

Happy reading, and May you find something in these pages that stays with you.

.....Ms. Amrata S. Mantri

Our college have done free health checkup of the Varrkaris of Sant Tukaram Maharaj Palkhi and distributed medicines.

Peaceful Protest Rally Against Atrocities on Women and Minors

In response to the recent incidents of violence against a woman doctor in Kolkata and a minor girl in Badlapur, the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Delonix Society's Baramati College of Pharmacy organized a peaceful protest rally from Teen Hatti Chowk to the Main Administrative Building. During the rally, students wore black ribbons on their arms and carried banners condemning violence against women. Placards highlighting the demand for justice were prominently displayed. A memorandum was also submitted to the Hon. Sub-Divisional Officer, Baramati, urging immediate and strict action against the accused in both cases. This initiative reflected the students' strong stand against such heinous crimes and their commitment to raising awareness for a safer society.

At Delonix Society's Baramati College of Pharmacy, International Women's Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm, jointly organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) and the Women Empowerment Cell. In line with the theme of women's empowerment, a seven-day special self-defense training camp was arranged in collaboration with Dharmarakshak Pratishthan and the Chhatrapati Janmotsav Committee, Baramati. The camp offers training in traditional martial arts from the Maratha era, including staff fighting (Lathi-Kathi), Dandpatta, and swordsmanship, equipping women with essential self-defense skills. The inauguration ceremony was graced by Adv. Kishor Pawar, Mr. Sagar Jadhav, Mr. Rohan Sherkar, Mr. Mayur Kumbhar, and Mr. Abhishek Wadekar, who shared inspiring thoughts on women's empowerment, self-defense, and the revival of historical martial arts.

As part of the Sant Tukaram Maharaj Palakhi Sohala, Delonix Society's Baramati College of Pharmacy, Barhanpur actively participated in a noble initiative by organizing a food donation drive for the devotees and pilgrims. Students and staff came together with great devotion and enthusiasm to prepare and distribute meals, snacks, and drinking water to the Warkaris participating in the Palakhi procession.
