ABOUT US

Delonix Society's Baramati College of Pharmacy is unique and first in Maharashtra to have been born from ideas and values of experienced professionals and teachers from the pharma sector. We feel proud that Delonix Society's is unique in terms of all trustee members are from pharmacy field, working at different colleges at various positions. BCOP is an outcome of ideas of experienced members.

BCOP will be the only college in Maharashtra that will be student-centric and overcome all lacunas that other colleges are facing. BCOP is established for making student carriers successful by providing them experienced guidance, facilities and an in-house developed curriculum that is developed from experienced members of our society.

Baramati is famous as the bastion of Hon. Sharadchandraji Pawar Saheb, Hon. Ajit Pawar Saheb and Hon. Mrs. Supriya Sule. The signatures of development are everywhere in Baramati. The first impression of the princely town in Maharashtra, over which the Baramati derives its name, is that of a role model of development in the country. They had a dream of providing education to the rural students at their doorsteps. We are feeling much proud to be a part of this role model.
